

A message from the Biscarini's:

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts" Isa 55:8

Latest:

We sensed change "in the air" back in April and as we prayed for specific direction we were led to a special couple from Manfredonia –Puglia (southern Italy). We gave updates on that story via email (if you are not receiving them, please email us) . We were invited by Antonella & Pietro to visit their hometown right after kidsgames and before leaving Manfredonia –Puglia (southern Italy). We gave updates on that story via email (if you are not receiving them, please email us) . We were invited by Antonella & Pietro to visit their hometown right after kidsgames and before leaving with Antonella and Pietro

for the YL camp in Portugal. Antonella, one of Pavarotti's protigees, was praying for us to move there because the need is so great and she wants to come alongside whatever work for the kingdom we will want to start. The hospitality was fantastic, but more surprising was the openess to the Gospel that we experienced. A&P told us that their friends were not that open to Christ having a very materialistic mindset. However, the very next day we arrived in Manfredonia (Sunday), we were at sea to meet some of those friends. Before long I found myself on their inflatable boat preaching.... Jane told me it was a classic: they were leaning in "eating up" the words from the

Chiara and Claudio

Gospel and asking questions; it seemed like a scene from the NT! They wanted me to meet their brothers, sisters, kids so that they could also hear these words of hope ...unbelievable. One lady, Romina, who is separated, introduced us to her kids and when we asked if they could come with us to the YL camp in Portugal, miraculously she agreed. I say miraculously because her kids, 15 and 17, never left the country, never took a plane, nor did they have an ID. Yet the mother trusted us and let them go with us 3 days after we met ! Our people here in Roma are trembling at the thought of losing us, but perhaps this is exactly what they need in order to take responsibility for the expansion and leading of the groups. Manfredonia is a small town (60k people) vs the 3MM of Roma and thus "what good could come out of Nazareth" is sounding in my head. I have to admit to you all that my rationale is in conflict with the supernatural leading. Furthermore if I were to choose -in the flesh- I would rather be in a small fishing village with nice clear water instead of a small industrial town by murky seawater ! Anyways, please continue to hold us up in prayer as we keep on pursuing this possible move. In 2 days we will meet with the mayor of Manfredonia (a good friend of A&P) and outline some of the projects we would like to undertake in his town.

Jane's corner:

Peppo wrote via email about the miracle of Marco's resident status at UCSD and we are grateful he was one of 3 trasfer students to be accepted in the aerospace engineering nano techonology program!

The past month has been a whirlwind of activities with finalizing the paperwork for ViaVeritas Inc, Kidsgames, wrapping up the studies for the season, the Young Life

Kidsgames Rome

camp in Portugal and scouting trips to Manfredonia. The group from North Coast Calvary Chapel in Carlsbad, CA was a blessing. Debbie, the kidsgames leader, run a beautiful program with 31 italian middle school kids who now are looking forwards to participating at the program in 2013. We think this program could have a wider impact if implemented constantly in a community.

It was great taking half international school kids and half Italian kids to the Young Life surf camp in Portugal! I think I am too old for this: in bed after 1am every night,

The Italian contingent

sleeping on the floor last night in Portugal Young Life's office (all 15 of us boys, and girls; Peppo had one eye open all night insuring the females/males didn't cross the boundary line in middle of night). Ropes course scared me to death as I dislike heights, but had to do it after 4 little teenage girls including Isabella jumped right off the "leap of faith" without much of a flinch! I did stand up a few times surfing and rode some waves which was fun. All the kids who didn't know each other were the best of friends by the end of the week as well as with the kids from

Isabella at her best!

Tax deductible donations to: Via Veritas Inc.
9580 Oak Avenue Parkway, Ste. 7-133
Folsom, CA 95630 (916) 502.5530

Morocco and Portugal. Every kid heard the gospel, but the cabin time talks were challenging with translating and mixed cultures involved. I think every person felt loved and accepted though and surely seeds were planted in their hearts (see Viaveritas Italy on Facebook for all pictures).

I'm too old for this....

Changes:

Via Veritas is still waiting for the final approval from the IRS for its 501C3 status. During this transitional period we still can receive donations; to simplify the process please use the enclosed card so that we can maintain continuity. For some reasons we have not seen some of your regular donations because of these changes. If you have any questions please contact Jessica at the US office number below.

We love you all. Peppo and Jane

www.viaveritas.org
Peppo and Jane Biscarini- *biscarini@msn.com
jbiscarini@gmailcom