

A message from the

"I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere human beings" 1 Cor 3:4

Latest

We are not indispensable. We have not changed since the beginning of time! Paul warned his followers not to be hung up on teachers, but on Christ alone. However, men throughout the centuries still gravitate around "public figures" sadly sometimes, even more so that Jesus Himself. In Manfredonia I tried to rotate "the pulpit" so that preferences would not be developed over the Word itself, yet people express favoritism. Praise God, while we have been gone a baptism took place performed by Salvatore Vaira (the fellow from Norther Italy whom I met via zoom in one of the Gospels and is now in Manfredonia -featured in the last newsletter-).

To try to stay connected with a larger audience, I have been publishing YouTube videos -under PeppoCast- so that people can stay connected. Graciously, the pastor of our church (Calvary Chapel Chattanooga), granted me access to the church's state of the art video equipment; thus, the quality of the video is superb!

More importantly, I am inspired and humbled by the comments people are expressing. Let me share a few so that you may rejoice with us since we truly are in this together! These messages are primarily intended for new or non-believers as a form of outreach:

Thank you for these videos that are even more powerful than the podcasts. The strength of your expression and genuine emotions go straight to the heart. SC.

You are speaking words of truth that bring wholeness to the inner being. GDB

Jane and I are still seeking the Lord's wisdom for the opportunity that awaits us with Young Life to start a Global City Initiative (Rome) vs. projects with WinShape (run by Chick-fil-a foundation) or David Ramsey.

We love you and are more grateful than even, during these tough times, for your faithful support! Remember that: NO MATTER WHAT, OUR HOPE IS IN THE FATHER WHO IS STILL IN CONTROL !
